Hello Willy,

I can confirm that the wire is going from Escrow to you today. Todd signed the approval to send the wire today. It is in their hands and I asked that they confirm with me once it is sent. I asked that they share the paperwork as I provided to you in the past.

I'll have an update this afternoon.

Thank you,

Good morning Willy,

Thank you again for the time on the phone yesterday. Todd asked me to let you know that the wire for the $5 Million goes out today after market. He can then send a wire for the machines but it won't be until tomorrow. I was hoping for something sooner but I hope that you understand that the process is working as Todd described however it is never as fast as I expect.

I'll continue to provide updates as we get the wire ready to release.

Was great speaking with Todd yesterday. He sounds like a sharp cookie.
